WELCOME TO OUR NEWEST ADDITION!! "JAMES DARREN ALTIZER"

Proud Parents are Pastor Cole and Lindsay Altizer
Born June 26, 2021 at 11:57 am.
Weighed in at 7 lbs. and 6 oz. and 20 inches long.

From Anna Coleman, Our Summer Intern

Working at this church has been one of my greatest blessings in life. Getting to know each of you on a deeper level was so special to me. You have all treated me with nothing but love and I seriously cannot thank you enough! Every moment I have spent here has taught me about God's vast love. This church loves unconditionally, recklessly and passionately. I have never seen a more active church. You are all so eager to help, eager to love, and eager to extend grace.

This summer, you all have taught me two major things. The first being the importance of consistency. I grew up with an emotion-based religion, making my faith go along with my emotions, up and down, side to side, truly all over. Being within this church has shown me how beautiful our faith can be when we use God to steer our emotions rather than having emotions fuel my faith.

The second thing I learned during my time here this summer, is the importance of being vulnerable. The key to true community is vulnerability, and wowza you guys have got that. To see a church with such intentionality has been blowing my socks off.

And these two things I've learned, consistency and vulnerability, honestly go hand in hand at a good church. Making sure the center is always Jesus (consistency) while also allowing room for messing up and extending grace to yourself and those around you (vulnerability). Watching this church continuously pursue both consistency and vulnerability has been life changing and I couldn't thank you enough. God Bless friends, and please keep in touch!

As You Prepare for Worship, study these Bible passages during the coming weeks.

On Sunday, August 15th, Shellem Cline will be providing worship through song here at Maggie Valley United Methodist Church.

Shellem is a National Award-winning Christian Country and Positive Message artist. Shellem Cline's single "Little Pink Glasses" won song of the year at the 2020 LGMA fan awards for Christian Country Music. Cline has received multiple honors including: New Excelling Artist (2012), Young Excelling Individual of the Year (2013), Favorite Vocalist (2013), Songwriter of the Year (2014), Christian Music Forerunner (2014) and many nominations for other prestigious awards. Cline stated in a press conference that "I feel that I need to use the talent that God has given me to reach a world that most people today forget about, a world that needs good news and encouragement. We are use to gathering at church and giving encouragement, inspiration, and the message of the gospel to the believers, but we often forget about the individuals outside of church that needs to hear the good news too." Cline continued with "I feel that God is calling me to share humor, inspiration, and of course the message of hope in Christ to people that need it the most, the unbeliever." With this being said, Cline has focused his music on not only the church, but those who would never set foot in the church house, the ones that need the message of Christ but is often forgotten about.

Shoebboxes!! This year we plan to send shoeboxes to the children of Armenia through Project Agape! We could use your help collecting items for these boxes! Please add small toys to one of your shopping lists for this month. Needed especially for August: erasers, rulers, notebooks, colored pencils, soft or plastic toys of any type or $5.00 per shoebox for postage.

"Partial Obedience Is Disobedience" (Taken from The Bible in One Year; InTouch.org)

When God calls you to do something specific, how do you respond? Now, most of us don't raise a fist at Him and yell, "I won't do it!" Instead, we usually struggle with the idea for a while. Sometimes we argue, telling Him all the reasons why it won't work. At other times, we'll begin to doubt we heard Him right and then deny that He's even called us. Or we could react like Jonah and simply run the other direction (Jonah 1:2-3).

However, there's another response that is often so subtle we don't even recognize it as disobedience. Substituting our plan for God's is a way to appear obedient and yet avoid doing what we don't like. That's how King Saul responded to the divine command he'd been given. In his eyes, saving a few animals to sacrifice to the Lord seemed like a better idea than God's.

Saul's sin seems obvious to us, but we're often unaware of the ways we make similar substitutions. Maybe God is calling you to serve in a less challenging area. Or perhaps you work extra hard on the job so the Lord won't notice you're neglecting your family. Sometimes we have so blended our plans with His that we cannot even differentiate between the two.

What are you substituting for obedience in your life? By offering a "better" plan, are you quietly and subtly resisting God's call to live fully committed to Him? There's no way you can ever improve on His plan for your life. Those who try to alter it lead powerless lives, because partial obedience is disobedience.

1 Samuel 15:1-23 (NIV)

Samuel said to Saul, "I am the one the LORD sent to anoint you king over his people Israel; so listen now to the message from the LORD. This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'I will punish the Amalekites for what they did to Israel when they waylaid them as they came up from Egypt. Now go, attack the Amalekites and totally destroy all that belongs to them. Do not spare them; put to death men and women, children and infants, cattle and sheep, camels and donkeys.'" So Saul summoned the men and mustered them at Telaim—two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand from Judah. Saul went to the city of Amalek and set an ambush in the ravine. Then he said to the Kenites, "Go away, leave the Amalekites so that I do not destroy you along with them; for you showed kindness to all the Israelites when they came up out of Egypt." So the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites. Then Saul attacked the Amalekites all the way from Havilah to Shur, near the eastern border of Egypt. He took Agag king of the Amalekites alive, and all his people he totally destroyed with the sword. But Saul and the army spared Agag and the best of the sheep and cattle, the fat calves and lambs—everything that was good. These they were unwilling to destroy completely, but everything that was despised and weak they totally destroyed. Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel: "I regret that I have made Saul king, because he has turned away from me and has not carried out my instructions." Samuel was angry, and he cried out to the LORD all that night. Early in the morning Samuel got up and went to meet Saul, but he was told, "Saul has gone to Carmel. There he has set up a monument in his own honor and has turned and gone on down to Gilgal." When Samuel reached him, Saul said, "The LORD bless you! I have carried out the LORD's instructions." But Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of sheep in my ears?

What is this lowing of cattle that I hear?" Saul answered, "The soldiers brought them from the Amalekites; they spared the best of the sheep and cattle to sacrifice to the LORD your God, but we totally destroyed the rest." "Enough!" Samuel said to Saul. "Let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night." "Tell me," Saul replied. Samuel said, "Although you were once small in your own eyes, did you not become the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel. And he sent you on a mission, saying,

'Go and completely destroy those wicked people, the Amalekites; wage war against them until you have wiped them out.' Why did you not obey the LORD? Why did you pounce on the plunder and do evil in the eyes of the LORD?" "But I did obey the LORD," Saul said. "I went on the mission the LORD assigned me. I completely destroyed the Amalekites and brought back Agag their king. The soldiers took sheep and cattle from the plunder, the best of what was devoted to God, in order to sacrifice them to the LORD your God at Gilgal." But Samuel replied: "Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the LORD? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams. For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance like the evil of idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has rejected you as king."

Thank-you's

Dear MVUMC,

Thank you so much for opening your church doors for the Mozley Cousins Gathering today. This time is valuable for our family, and means more than you might know. God bless you, and may you be filled with God's light.

Janice Christian

Dear Church Family,

I would like to acknowledge all the WONDERFUL people who helped with Vacation Bible School this year. A lot of good planning and preparation went into this, and the results were evident. As I watched the children go from one activity to the next, I could see their excitement. They were really having fun as they learned stories of love, faith, and joy! Their little lights were shining when they got here, but they were beaming like lighthouses when they left! We're so glad you came, Kingston, Eli, Micah, Madison, and Abby.

Thanks to my co-director, BARB PLANCHOCK (a.k.a. Energizer Bunny), for many things, but especially her engaging leadership of the opening and closing assemblies.

So here are the rest of you.

Rev. Mike Shirley, Gene Saxton, John Hinton, Shirley Saxton, Sandra Knight, Hannah Cabe, Linda Howell, Gail Quick, Victor Quick, Anna Coleman, Zeata Ruff, Dottie Horton, Carolyn Pilgrim, Sue Shirley, Beverly Ketner, Twila Medford, Gail England, Patricia Rowell, Kendall Williamson, Luke Williamson

My heartfelt thanks to all!

Dear MVUMC and Shepherd's Table,

We are praying for you and your mission!

In God's love and peace,

Trinity UMC Youth Group - Andrews, SC

FYI from Renee Mackey - This Youth Group came a couple of years ago to Lake Junaluska and their mission was to help out at our church. They cleaned tables, chairs, windows, swept floors and weeded the garden for us. Since COVID made its appearance, they haven't been able to return to the Lake. Instead, this year, they had a bake sale to help with Shepherd's Table since they couldn't come in person and do work. They raised $500 for Shepherd's Table. This is what LOVE is all about!

“Use All Your Weapons” (August 1, 2018)

Contrary to our expectations of life, all “fun and games” lies are full of problems and trials. We enter them in innocence and exit it in pain and experiences. Seldom do we have long years of happiness and joy. Therefore, we must utilize all the weapons we have at our disposal to cope with life’s worries and frustrations.

Nature shows us how to do this: “A tree planted in a rain forest is never forced to extend it’s roots very far downward in search of life-giving water. As a result, it remains poorly anchored and can be toppled by even a moderate wind.”

“By contrast, the Mesquite tree is planted in a dry desert where it is threatened continually by its hostile environment. How does it survive? By driving its roots down thirty feet or more into the earth, seeking water. By adapting and adjusting to harsh conditions, the well-rooted tree becomes strong and steady against all assailants.”

There’s a commercial on TV for an insurance company. It shows a couple standing by their new home, built by a huge tree. The owner is telling his friend that he has nothing to fear in the terrible winds they sometimes have in the desert as that tree is famous for living over a hundred years or more. As they admire it, there is a blast of wind of tornadic wind and the tree topples over onto the house. The insurance agent says, “There’s nothing to worry about, you’re covered for land of any age.”

Are you covered by God’s insurance plan? Don’t wait to take care of it.

“Perfect Peace” (August 8, 2018)

Have you been asking your Heavenly Father for his healing or your pain, or the answer to a decision or strength to accept a seemingly insurmountable project? How often do you live in absolute quiet or peace?

Do you think and feel that He is sending you a message? If you are in constant communication with Him, you will feel the Holy Spirit surrounding you continually. All the answers to your questions will become clear to you and your wishes will be given to you if you have complete faith in God’s promises.
